ORDER

Before the Court are Plaintiff's motion to have a laptop in the federal court building (Doc. 9) and motion to extend the summons deadline (Doc. 10). Plaintiff offers no reason why she needs a laptop in the federal court building. As such, Plaintiff's motion (Doc. 9) is DENIED.

As to her request to extend the summons deadline, the Court liberally construes this as a request to extend the service deadline. The Court GRANTS this motion (Doc. 10). Plaintiff will have a two-week extension, until July 9, 2021, to properly serve Defendants. The Court will not grant further extensions without a showing of good cause. Failure to timely and properly serve Defendants will result in the dismissal of this action.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
